In the midst of our nation in crisis with an unlawful administration, so many people feel helpless, the question on everyone's mind is; what can I do?

How can we take back the United States?

This year the Ecumenical Peace Institute's Fall Gathering will address this with a panel of experts. Our panel represents organizations that are organizing demonstrations, actions, service and other ways that we can all "do something," feel empowered and make a difference.

Panel to include representatives from
