

Saturday, Aug. 9, 2014 ● 6:30-9 p.m. North end of Aquatic Park, Berkeley ■

West end of Addison St., 2 blocks west of Sixth St. • 1 block south of University Ave.

August 6^{\pm} and 9^{\pm} are the 69^{\pm} anniversaries of the world's first atomic bombings. In Japan and around the world, people will gather in early August to float lanterns in remembrance of the victims of Hiroshima and Nagasaki, all victims of war, and all who have gone before us. This moving and beautiful tradition provides a chance to reaffirm our commitment to building a better future.

3-6:30 p.m. Set-up (volunteers needed)

6:30 p.m. Decorate lantern shades

7 p.m. Program

Music • Messages from mayors of Hiroshima and Nagasaki

8 p.m. Lanterns floated on Aquatic Park lagoon

9–10 p.m. Take-down (volunteers needed)

Sponsored and Endorsed by:

Berkeley City Council • ProgressivePortal.org • United Nations Association-USA, East Bay • Grandmothers Against War • Northern California Peace Alliance and other individuals and organizations

The Peace Lantern Ceremony is a volunteer-created event.
