

Ecumenical Peace Institute Autumn Gathering

Saturday, November 3, 2018

Dinner and Program 5:30 - 8:45 p.m.

St. John's Presbyterian Church
2727 College Ave., in Berkeley

Zahra Billoo on Racism, Islamophobia
and Empire

Zahra Billoo is a civil rights attorney & the Executive Director of the San Francisco Bay Area office of the Council on American-Islamic Relations (CAIR-SFBA).

Food Not Bombs will prepare a delicious vegetarian dinner.

Cosponsored by St. John's Mission & Justice Commission, Middle East Children's Alliance, Interfaith Council of Contra Costa County & NorCalSabeel.

Dr. King challenged us to conquer "the giant triplets of racism, materialism, and militarism." We will hear from Zahra Billoo on the work to oppose Islamophobia, which we at EPI consider to be a special case of racism. We recognize that U.S. empire is based on these three evils which we seek to eradicate.

Suggested donation $15 - $50. (by mail, paypal or at the door)
No one turned away for lack of funds.

==>>Please RSVP (510) 990-0374 wheelchair accessible

Directions: St. John's Presbyterian is at 2727 College Ave., between Garber St. and Forest Ave, three blocks north of Ashby.

AC Transit: 51B bus runs on College between Rockridge BART and downtown Berkeley.

Ecumenical Peace Institute • PO Box 9334, Berkeley, CA 94709
www.epicalc.org • 510-990-0374

Ecumenical Peace Institute Autumn Gathering

Saturday, November 3, 2018

Dinner and Program 5:30 - 8:45 p.m.

St. John's Presbyterian Church
2727 College Ave., in Berkeley

Zahra Billoo on Racism, Islamophobia
and Empire

Zahra Billoo is a civil rights attorney & the Executive Director of the San Francisco Bay Area office of the Council on American-Islamic Relations (CAIR-SFBA).

Food Not Bombs will prepare a delicious vegetarian dinner.

Cosponsored by St. John's Mission & Justice Commission, Middle East Children's Alliance, Interfaith Council of Contra Costa County & NorCalSabeel.

Dr. King challenged us to conquer "the giant triplets of racism, materialism, and militarism." We will hear from Zahra Billoo on the work to oppose Islamophobia, which we at EPI consider to be a special case of racism. We recognize that U.S. empire is based on these three evils which we seek to eradicate.

Suggested donation $15 - $50. (by mail, paypal or at the door)
No one turned away for lack of funds.

==>>Please RSVP (510) 990-0374 wheelchair accessible

Directions: St. John's Presbyterian is at 2727 College Ave., between Garber St. and Forest Ave, three blocks north of Ashby.

AC Transit: 51B bus runs on College between Rockridge BART and downtown Berkeley.

Ecumenical Peace Institute • PO Box 9334, Berkeley, CA 94709
www.epicalc.org • 510-990-0374