

East Bay Peace Action & Ecumenical Peace Institute present:

Natylie Baldwin speaking on
Russia and the West:
What's True, Exaggerated and False?

Natylie Baldwin is the author of Understanding Russia and U.S.-Russia Relations: A Primer, forthcoming in Spring of 2019. She is also co-author of Ukraine: Zbig's Grand Chessboard & How the West Was Checkmated. She has traveled to Russia twice, visiting 6 different cities and interviewing a cross-section of Russians on various issues, including their views of Putin, the economy, US-Russia relations, the Yeltsin era, and the Russian Revolution. She writes for Consortium News and blogs at natyliesbaldwin.com.

"I'm not sure there's been a better book published this year . . .
I'm confident there's not been a more important one."

Author and activist David Swanson, re Ukraine: Zbig's Grand Chessboard. . .
