

THE MOSQUE OF PARIS:

How Muslims in Paris Sheltered Jews during World War II

Join Ecumenical Peace Institute and the Berkeley Fellowship of Unitarian Universalists' Hal Carlstad Social Justice Center in welcoming Annette Herskovits (PhD).

Dr. Herskovits will tell the story of how she survived as a Jewish child in Nazi-occupied France and present a short film about how the Mosque of Paris sheltered Jews.

She will also speak of the several hundred thousand Muslim men from the French colonies who fought the Nazis with the Allies and suffered disproportionate casualties.

A slide show of personal and historical photos will accompany the talk.

Thursday, March 12, 7:00 p.m.
BFUU Fellowship Hall,
1924 Cedar Street (at Bonita Ave.), Berkeley

For information call 510-990-0374 or 510-275-4272
visit www.epicalc.org or www.bfuu.org

This event is part of BFUU's Conscientious Projector series.